story her husband deserted her last Thursday, and when he met her on 7th street Saturday he went home with her. She left the house to go to the drug store and he followed her. When she reached N street near the mouth of Blagden's alley she says he stabbed her in the back with a penknife. She denied that her husband had supported her, and called witnesses to prove the truth of the charge against him. The prisoner denied the charge, and claimed that his wife had spent his money for whisky. He thought she wanted to get rid of him. The prisoner denied the charge, and was questioned, and her evidence was a was questioned, and her evidence was a very superfeased and told of the cut in her back and of having seen the blood.

Judge Miller held him guilty of the charge and imposed a fine of $25 or sixty days.

The Golden Cross.

At the last meeting of Goodwill Commandery, United Order of the Golden Cross, Noble Cemmander Walter E. Allen presided. One application for membership was presented. Under the good of the order trief addresses were made by A. M. McBath, John G. Thompson, Dr. S. I. Groot and Grand Commander Perry, the last two speakers addressing themselves particularly and the commander Charene I. Geseford presided. The degrees were conferred on one candidate. Under the good of the order Miss Adelaide Payne recited "The Haunted Clock," ard Dr. Ravenburg gave an interesting talk on western life. The subject of "expense assessments" was discussed and the respresentatives to the grand commandery were instructed to vote for its repeal.

To Go to Haltimore.

At the headquarters of the Baltimore centennial exposition a letter has been received by Mr. B. H. Warner, president of the Washington board of trade, stating that fifty gentlemen from Washington would be present at the flag-raising next Monday.
